GEO. E. HOFFMAN DIES TODAY IN ARENDSVILLE

Harrisburg, Oct. 1 (AP)—Governor Martin praised war-time accomplishments of newspapers in a statement opening National Newspaper Week today in Pennsylvania. The observance will continue until October 8.

"Never in history," the Chief Executive said in a statement, "has the power of the press been more manifest than at this moment when we are faced with the greatest emergency the world has ever known."

"I have recognized the influence of our newspapers for many years but during recent days and months I have marvelled at what they have been able to accomplish."

Asserting that "newspapers demonstrated an amazing capacity to do a big job," in promoting sales of War Bonds and Stamps and other war efforts, Governor Martin added:

"Never Failed."

"Not once have they faltered. Not once have they failed. The splendid work continues unceasingly, day after day."

Governor Martin's praise of the press was echoed in other statements issued by high officials through the Pennsylvania Newspaper Publishers association, sponsors of Newspaper Week.

A War Bond and Stamp selling campaign by newspaperboys tomorrow—proclaimed over the nation as Newspaperboy Day—is among activities scheduled for the week.

Pennsylvania advertising executives will hold a two-day meeting here Monday and Tuesday to discuss cooperation with federal agencies and on the second day will join editors and publishers in considering such problems as higher newsprint costs, rationing of newsprint and manpower shortages.

Free Press, People!
With the slogan, "a free press and a free people—an unbeatable team," newspapers during the next eight days will emphasize these wartime services:

Presentation of rationing programs, appeals for conservation, publication of official announcements, black market publicity, fat salvage, anti-inflation promotion, Victory garden information, efforts to ease labor shortages, forest fire prevention, War Bond and Stamp selling drives, scrap metal collections, Civilian Defense information, recruiting, travel conservation and morale building.

The publishers' association and the Pennsylvania State College School of Journalism will sponsor an editorial writing contest for high school students with $250 in cash prizes to be awarded.

Grateful Folk

Start of Newspaper Week brought expressions of gratitude to the press of the state and nation from Col. Richard K. Mellon, state director of Selective Service, and R. F. Ashenfelter, Office of Price Administration head in the Philadelphia district, who cited the manner in which newspapers have kept the public advised of regulations and policies of their respective agencies.

Others who expressed appreciation of the manner in which the press has served the public despite wartime difficulties and restrictions included Miles Horst, state Secretary of Agriculture; Floyd Chalfant, Secretary of Commerce; Dr. Francis B. Haas, Superintendent of Public Instruction; William S. Livingood, Jr., Secretary of Internal Affairs, and William H. Chesnut, Secretary of Labor and Industry.

Col. J. H. Zerby, of the Pottsville Republican, president of PNPA is directing the Newspaper Week program in Pennsylvania, in association with Jess H. Rodgers, Westinghouse Valley News, Wilmerding, vice president, and William N. Hardy, Harrisburg, manager.

"The press of Pennsylvania pledges itself to make all sacrifices asked of it to help win the war," Col. Zerby said in a statement.

HIGH RATING IS GIVEN LOCAL AIR RAID TEST UNIT

Gettysburg's warning box operators, the men and women, who 24 hours a day man the "little black box" that signals the alarm for air raids, whether tests or the real thing, made perfect scores for over-all efficiency during six of the last eight months, the Adams County Council of Defense announced today.

The official records, as prepared by Lieut. Henry A. Lundgren, adjutant for the Philadelphia Fighter Wing, show that on only two months have the volunteer workers at the "box" failed to perform their duty perfectly in every instance. In January the group scored 97 per cent for over-all efficiency and in May they scored 98.5 per cent.

February, March, April, June, July and August were marked by perfect scores. The completed record for September is not as yet available.

"Rights Of Free Press Are People's Safeguard"

TO THE NEWSPAPER PUBLISHERS OF AMERICA:

National Newspaper Week (October 1-8) again affords an opportunity for us to renew our faith in the principles of Democracy and to re-appraise our efforts to sustain that Democracy against our enemies. In this supreme war effort, the daily and weekly newspapers of America are charged with great responsibility. It is their task to keep the people fully and wisely informed, to record and publish those sober facts that will steady the helm and even the keel of a nation tossed on the sea of wartime uncertainty.

Today the war news is better than it was a year ago. We are on the offensive; the enemy has been dislodged in many quarters. Yet the need for a sharp perspective, for a sure balance, for an intelligent evaluation of our gains and a cautious weighing of our future tasks is imperative. The enemy would confuse and disintegrate us with rumors and misunderstandings. Our most effective weapon against his malicious falsehoods is the truth, an accurate, full, and fair presentation of the news in a free press.

The rights of a free press are the safeguards of the people; the responsibilities of a free press are the commandments of the people.

County Exceeds 2 Million Dollars In War Bond Drive

Taking advantage of the two days' extension to the Third War Bond campaign Adams countians dug deep into their money pockets Thursday and unearthed $146,247.50 with which to purchase war bonds and swept the grand total of bond purchases since the inception of the drive, September 9, to $2,009,399.25.

The county is now only $124,700.75 from its objective of $2,134,100, the largest single financial project ever undertaken in this county.

"We have two days to go," said Edmund W. Thomas, county chairman, "and I feel that with our good citizens spurred to a new high in enthusiasm we will reach our goal. Today's figures, of course, do not include sales made today, hence we will not know until sometime Saturday morning how much we must raise the last day of the drive."

Urge Final Drive

Thursday's sales were the largest for any single day since the campaign opened. Littlestown set the pace for yesterday's drive with sales exceeding $75,000.

Members of the tabulating committee warned against over-confidence and the possibility of a let-down in bond buying during the closing hours of the drive.

"Although it appears that we will reach our quota it must not be forgotten that we still need $124,700 worth of purchases to achieve that objective," the committee warned. "If we stop buying bonds we will fall short of our goal. It is better to be 'over the top' than under the top. Let's keep driving until we have the official figures that we have reached our goal."

"A" Motorists Get More Gas As "B" And "C" Card Rations Are Cut Today

Washington, Oct. 1 (AP)—A broad revision of rationing described as necessary to spread the gasoline supply more equitably today gave A-card motorists in the east more fuel by cutting down the amounts allowed drivers with the supplemental B and C cards.

The shakeup in ration card values effective last midnight applies everywhere east of the Rocky Mountains. The Office of Price Administration increased the ration of East Coast A card holders from 1 1/2 to 2 gallons weekly. B and C coupons were reduced to 2 gallons everywhere except in the Rockies and on the Pacific coast.

OPA stipulated that in the midwest and southwest one gallon of the three allowed A card holders must be used for occupational driving before the motorist is eligible for supplementary rations. East coast drivers were not bound by this regulation.

Washington, Oct. 1 (AP)—Gasoline rations for Eastern "A" book motorists have been raised, but Representative Fred A. Hartley, Jr. (R-NJ), says a group of Congressmen from eastern states will con-

RECORD IS SET IN SEPTEMBER

Five boroughs in Adams county and the office of the county treasurer have already purchased—or are about to purchase—a total of $29,000 in U. S. two per cent bonds in the Third War Loan drive, a county-wide survey by The Gettysburg Times disclosed today.

The possibility that an additional purchase of $25,000 may be made today or Saturday by the Littlestown Borough Authority made it probable that the municipalities' total contribution toward meeting the county's bond quota will top the $50,000 mark.

The largest single purchase to date with public funds in this drive in Adams county was ordered Thursday by the Adams county commissioners in a special session.

The board authorized County Treasurer John W. Brehm to buy $10,000 worth of two per cent

September bonds.

No allocation was made of the sum to any bank in the county with the treasurer being authorized to make the purchase at any issuing agency he selects, the commissioners' office said. The money for the bonds is to be drawn from the general fund.

Gettysburg Buys More

Gettysburg borough purchased $5,000 in 2 per cent coupon bonds Thursday, bringing its total U. S. bond holdings to $15,000. Thursday's purchase was made from monies in the general fund after a conference between members of the finance committee and other council officers. The purchase is to be formally confirmed at the October meeting of council Monday evening.

Gettysburg bought $10,000 in bonds earlier this year from a balance on hand in the special fund.

On Thursday Littlestown borough purchased $6,000 worth of bonds—allocated equally between the two banks there. The purchase followed action taken by council Tuesday evening. Officers of the Littlestown Borough Authority said today they are considering a $25,000 bond purchase using funds now idle because of retarded sewer schedules on the sanitary sewer system being constructed there.

Other Boroughs Buy

Bendersville borough bought $2,000 in war bonds this morning following action taken by borough authorities Monday.

McSherrystown borough increased its bond holding from $3,000 to $7,000 last week by the purchase of four $1,000 war bonds. Last December the borough used sinking fund money to make initial purchases of three $1,000 U. S. bonds.

This week the New Oxford borough council made its first purchase of war bonds with $2,000 of the town's money.

Soaking rains fell over two thirds of Pennsylvania last night and today but weather authorities said the fall was insufficient to alleviate drought conditions and replenish short water supplies.

Chief Sanitary Engineer H. E. Moses, of the state Health department said "it will take more than this to straighten things out."

The Health department earlier in the week called on Pennsylvanians to conserve water "because present conditions indicate danger of drought."

Moses reported the dry spell "apparently widespread" and that "many water companies are on emergency supplies. Rural areas especially are hard hit."

Showers were predicted for the entire state today, with a forecast of clear and cooler weather by nightfall.

THREE INJURED IN AUTO CRASH

Three persons received injuries and damage totaling approximately $600 was done when cars driven by Norman K. Lady, 17, Biglerville star route, and Lester Roth, Biglerville R. 1, collided at the intersection of routes 234 and 334 on the Biglerville-Heidersburg road this morning at 6:45 o'clock.

Mrs. Wilmer Lady, 43, mother of the driver of one car, is a patient in the hospital with a fractured bone in the face and contusions of the chest.

The driver was treated at the hospital for a laceration of the face. Glenn Funt, 17, York Springs R. 2, another occupant of the Lady car, received treatment at the hospital for a laceration of the scalp. Roth was unharmed.

Pvt. James A. Treas, of the local state police, who is investigating the accident, reported Lady was driving west when Roth who was going north, pulled out of a side road into the path of the Lady machine. After the collision the Lady car jumped a culvert and turned over. Roth stated he failed to see the approaching car due to the steamed condition of his windows, according to the officer. The investigation is being continued.

Nazis Throw Into Defense Of "Eternal" City Of Rome

By NOLAND NORGAARD

Allied Headquarters in North Africa, Oct. 1 (AP)—Lt. Gen. Mark W. Clark's American Fifth Army today captured Naples, Italy's third greatest city, and threw the German defenders back upon the defense of Rome, which is 120 air-line miles to the north.

The American and British forces which clattered into Naples found the city of 925,000 empty of Germans, who for a week had engaged in an orgy of destruction and terrorism designed to burn and tear down every installation that would be of benefit to Allied forces and to hamper Italian cooperation with the liberating armies.

VENGEANCE OF FALLEN NATIONS PERILS HITLER

By DEWITT MACKENZIE

(Associated Press War Analyst)
As Herr Hitler struggles to halt the retreat of his armies and stabilize his line on the eastern front, one wonders whether he even has tigerish nightmares of the awful retribution which might be visited on Germans by the millions of conquered peoples if there were a Nazi military debacle.

We have a cogent reminder of this possibility—almost a certainty for some parts of Europe—in the word from Naples that the Germans, seeking revenge for the Italian surrender to the Allies, have turned that fine city into a horror. Civilians, including women and children, are reported to have been machine-gunned to death in the streets, and much of the port has been wantonly destroyed.

That's mild, though, as compared with the wholesale massacres and other atrocities carried out in the many occupied countries. From the Baltic states westward to the English channel and southward to the Mediterranean, millions of folk are waiting with blazing hatred for their chance at revenge.

Climactic Struggle

And in Germany itself there are some 12,000,000 Italians, Frenchmen, Belgians, Danes, Poles and other peoples who have been dragged there and put to work as slaves. Reports via Switzerland say that the Nazis are further stripping Italy of manpower for forced labor in Germany.

Yes, the Fuehrer had better maintain his line! If we are to believe German broadcasts, that's what the all highest is determined to do, for he is said to have established headquarters on the Russian front and decreed that his generals shall not yield "another foot of ground" beyond the prepared Nazi positions west of the Dnieper, which now has been reached and is the scene of many bloody battles for control of the main crossings of this third greatest river of Europe.

The climactic struggle which is going on along most of the thousand-mile front, from Leningrad to the Sea of Azov, should give us an indication soon whether the Germans will be able to maintain themselves along the natural line of the Dnieper. Their alternative will be to resume their highly dangerous withdrawal into Poland.

Disaster May Stalk Again

As I previously have pointed out, a new and grave danger has been created for the Germans by the Red offensive in the Smolensk sector. The ostensible objective of this fresh operation is to drive across into the Baltic states, thus cutting off the Hitlerites in the whole northern triangle, which has one side on the Baltic sea and its apex at Leningrad.

If the Russians have the strength to continue this push, it will compel the Germans to resume their withdrawal. Otherwise their Dnieper line will be outflanked from the north, and disaster will be stalking them again.

Russia's reserve in manpower and materiel is an unknown quantity to the outside world. From time to time there have been unofficial reports of a huge reservoir of trained forces ready for just such an emergency as now has arrived. The Germans, too, say the Reds are employing fresh reserves. However, time is our surest source of the truth in this matter.

Question of Damage

There's also another missing clue in our study, and that's just how much damage the Germans have suffered in their rapid retreat, which at times has taken on the nature of rout in some places. All we know now is that the Moscow reports show the Nazi losses in men and materiel have been heavy.

As a matter of fact, unless the Germans are weaker than they appear, one would expect the war of extreme movement to pause for a bit of a breather. It's one of the wonders of the world conflict that the Russians should have been able to maintain their offensive so long as they have. Their present drive started July 12, and since then they have recaptured close to 100,000 square miles of territory. Their skill and endurance have been astounding. They long ago must have outraced their chief communications, and for some time they have been struggling through the terrible lakes of mud produced by the fall rains.

Under normal circumstances the offensive should have paused half a dozen times—but not with the enemy in full retreat. Now the Russians may take the opportunity to strengthen communications and bring up supplies and fresh troops.

Evening classes in farm machinery conditioning and repair for farmers in this section of Adams county will open next week at the Gettysburg high school building.

The classes will be conducted under the Rural War Production Training program, sponsored by the state and federal governments.

Ancient City Of Pompeii Is In Ruins Again

By The Associated Press

London, Oct. 1 (AP) — The Battle of Kiev, expected here to be one of the decisive struggles of the war, raged with unabated fury today with both Russians and Germans throwing tremendous forces of artillery, infantry and air power into the fight to achieve mastery of the Dnieper line.

The officers made 292 patrols, four state department investigations, four other investigations, and spent 961 hours on traffic duty, 1,724 hours on station duty and 221 hours on special assignments. They traveled 11,570 miles in the course of their patrols and investigations including 90 miles on motorcycle.

URGES DEFENSE

UNITS TO MAKE
ALERT SURVEYS

In a communication to local Defense Councils and local Defense Communities, Judge W. C. Sheely, chairman of the Council of Defense of Adams County, urged the expediency of each defense unit in the county of making a thorough inquiry to determine whether each unit is fully prepared for any emergency.

Judge Sheely called attention to the roar of heavy guns echoed against the slopes of Vesuvius and the ground trembled in what must have been a close approximation to the catastrophe that overtook Pompeii nearly 2,000 years ago.

The Germans had been using the ancient amphitheater as a camp ground and the marks of their tanks and trucks were plainly visible all around the ruins. The amphitheater itself was damaged by bombs and shells. A number of other buildings and temples also were hit.

Craters pit the ground around the columns where the law-courts once stood, while here and there flagstones have been tossed about like children's toys.

There was no time to examine the ruins at leisure, however, for only 500 yards ahead British armored units were blasting at the German rearguard.

Like so many other towns along the bloody road to Naples this one is smashed to bits. It is nothing but a heap of stones, broken roofs, sagging walls and tangled skeins of electric wire.

YANKEES BOW TO WHITE SOX AS CARDS WIN

By TED MEIER

The Associated Press

Spud Chandler, 20-game winner for the New York Yankees, is in top form for his expected three starting assignments against the St. Louis Cardinals in the World series—the first, fourth and seventh game, if necessary.

The ace right hander twirled three hitless innings against the Chicago White Sox yesterday in his final tuneup for the fall classic that opens Tuesday. His brief appearance lowered his earned run average for the season to 1.67 the best in the American league since 1919.

SOX WON 8-3

The fact that the White Sox landed on Bill Zuber for an 8 to 3 victory after Chandler's departure was important only to the Sox who are putting on a great drive to oust Cleveland from third place. The triumph—No. 11 of the season for Southpaw Edgar Smith—is the Sox's 13th success in 16 starts and put them within one percentage point of the Indians.

Howie Krist of the Cardinals also served notice he is ready as a possible World series starter by shutting out the New York Giants, 1 to 0, on six hits in a night game at St. Louis. Rookie Bill Voiselle of the Giants yielded only five hits, but lost in the eighth when Lou Klein singled Harry Walker home from second base.

The Brooklyn Dodgers tightened their hold on third place in the National league by capitalizing on a shaky start by Elmer Riddle to beat Cincinnati, 3 to 2, and end the Reds' 10-game winning streak.

A third inning three-bagger by Billy Herman provided the one-run margin that Kirby Higbe held to the end for his 13th victory. Riddle, trying for his 22nd victory, yielded only one hit in the last six innings, but the damage had been done.

Cubs Beat Braves

Rockie Andy Pafko, selected as the most valuable player in the Pacific Coast league where he played with Los Angeles, sparked the Chicago Cubs to an uphill 5 to 4 victory over the Boston Braves in 12 innings. The Cubs won in the 12th on Pafko's fourth hit of the game. Nate Andrews, who went the route for the Braves, suffered his 20th defeat.

Luckless Luman Harris of the Philadelphia Athletics lost his 21st game of the season as Detroit blanked the A's, 6 to 0. Joe Hoover blasted a three-run homer to back up four hit pitching by Frank Overmire and Hal White. Overmire retired in the sixth after being hit in the leg by a line drive.

A scheduled doubleheader between the Boston Red Sox and St. Louis Browns was cancelled because of the weather. The Phillies and Pittsburgh Pirates had an open date.

General admission will be 50¢, including tax. All service personnel will be admitted for 25¢, including tax.

SPORTS ROUNDUP

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.

New York, Oct. 1 (AP)—Preparations are under way to hold the 19th East-West football game at San Francisco New Year's Day, but the trick will be to find 44 players who don't have to be back in the campus Navy in 48 hours. . . . The coaches say it can be done.

Caught right in the middle, the local baseball scribes who handled World Series press reservations won't say whether the demand this year is larger or smaller than they could handle. . . . "If we say more," one explained, "somebody in Washington might get excited; if we say less, the newspapermen we turned down would get excited."

Strictly unofficial watchword of the Rangers Hockey club this year is: "We can't be any worse than the New York Giants."

TODAY'S GUEST STAR

Carter (Scoop) Latimer, Greenville, South Carolina News: "Georgia Tech's football team, manned from stem to stern by the Navy, won't be upset this season unless Notre Dame rocks the boat. But leave it to Coach Bill Alexander to have some pills on hand for seasickness."

ONE-MINUTE SPORTS PAGE

In case you're wondering how the scalpers manage to get World Series tickets, Jackie Farrell reports that the only pasteboards mailed before yesterday went to out-of-town applicants, so some must have bounced back. . . . Harry Mahnken, who was "promoted" from the 150-pound squad to coach the Princeton varsity, reports that two backs who couldn't make his second-stringers on the big team. . . . The Detroit Lions claim to be the best-scouted team in the National Football League. They opened the season a week ahead of the rest and every team in the circuit had a man watching them. . . . Mrs. H. C. Phipps, who bred Seabiscuit and his notably unsuccessful brother, Naval Reserve, has another full brother to the Biscuit in her barns. Billy Southworth, Cardinals—Small, affable and boyish looking. When you meet him you don't wonder that his players run their legs off trying to win for him . . . played for the Cards when they beat the Yanks in 1926; managed the club for a few months in 1929, then went

LIONS DEPART IN "DRIBLETS" FOR GRID TILT

State College, Pa., Oct. 1 (AP)—A high-spirited Penn State football squad of 32 players left today for Chapel Hill, N. C., and tomorrow's game with the North Carolina Tar Heels.

The Penn State party had to be divided into three groups because of wartime travel restrictions and part of the trip made by auto and the remainder by train.

"The trip's not going to help us," asserted Coach Bob Higgins of Penn State before leaving. "But if the train accommodations are satisfactory and the boys get their rest tonight we should not be too seriously affected. I think the boys know they have a tough assignment on their hands and they are anxious to do a good job of it."

Capture Opener

The Nittany Lions of State won their opening game against Bucknell last week 14-0 while North Carolina was defeated by Georgia Tech 20-7.

Joe Bedenk, who scouted the Tar Heels against Georgia Tech, insists Tech won a victory it didn't deserve and that the Nittany Lions will have a strenuous afternoon tomorrow.

The contest will be one of the season's few inter-sectional games. Coach Higgins finished the week's practice with the same first string that beat Bucknell, with one exception.

Jim Graham, a Navy trainee who formerly played for George Washington University, won a lot of attention during practice for his work in the tailback post. While Higgins did not say who would start, indications pointed to use of Graham in a running role with Bobby Williams concentrating on passes.

Columbus-Syracuse To Meet Tonight

Syracuse, N. Y., Oct. 1 (AP)—A pitcher who learned his baseball in the Syracuse Chief's backyard will face the International leaguers tonight for the American Association Columbus Red Birds in the opening 1943 little world series game.

In a series likely to hinge on hurling, Manager Nick Cullop will lead with Ted Wilks, of nearby Fulton, who won 16 and lost 8 in the Birds' regular season. He defeated the Chiefs in the final game of last year's series.

Manager Jewel Ens will start Miller (Dixie) Howell, a righthander who won 13 and lost nine for the Chiefs, and produced three crucial playoff victories.

(Home teams listed first).

Notre Dame-Georgia Tech — The Irish worked out against Pitt last week while Tech had a much tougher job whipping North Carolina. But with the thought one never should vote against Notre Dame until shown otherwise we'll ride with the Indians in a close-drawn battle.

Northwestern-Michigan — The Wildcats failed to impress in defeating Indiana while the Wolverines showed plenty of power in two victories so it's Michigan.

Army-Cornell — Capt. Whelchel says the true strength of the Midships won't be determined until they meet Duke next week. Can't see Cornell stopping this all-veteran outfit.

Columbia Picked

Columbia - Princeton—Lou Little always does well with so little at Columbia. The Tigers should be better than their defeat last week indicated. A weak vote for Columbia in a high-scoring affair.

Pennsylvania-Yale — There's power and experience to burn at Penn. Should be a second runaway for the Quakers.

Army-Colgate — There was nothing in the Cadets' 27-0 defeat of Villanova to cause us to weaken on the Army. It's Army but probably in a close-set.

Minnesota-Nebraska — This'll be no battle of Titans, as in other years, but the below par Gophers shape up as stronger than a weak Nebraska team.

Several important skirmishes are scheduled in the south, with the Duke-North Carolina Pre-flight contest at Durham High, on the 1st. North Carolina is host to Penn State and Virginia invades West Virginia in other games.

Great Lakes-Pittsburgh — Can't see Pitt bouncing back enough from the Notre Dame shellacking to take the Gobs.

Army-Colgate — There was nothing in the Cadets' 27-0 defeat of Villanova to cause us to weaken on the Army. It's Army but probably in a close-set.

North Carolina - Penn State — North Carolina to bound back after losing to Georgia Tech. It may be close.

Hither and thither we pick: Dartmouth over U. S. Coast Guard; Harvard over Camp Edwards in what the crimson calls an informal game; Rochester over Carnegie Tech; North Carolina State over Clemson, Maryland over Wake Forest, Virginia over West Virginia; Muhlenberg over Bucknell and U. C. L. A. over College of the Pacific. On Friday we like Temple over Swarthmore and Denver over Kansas while on Sunday we'll pick Marquette to beat Camp Grant and the Del Monte Pre-flight to turn back St. Mary's.

The British news men were with the leading units of Lt. Gen. Mark W. Clark's armor advancing upon Nocera, and it was after they had seen enemy opposition wiped out on the outskirts of the town that they were killed.

Ironically, the news men who had been killed reached London only a few hours after a prophetic story by Austin had appeared in today's Daily Herald under the heading "On the Road to Death."

"Along the road of death we are driving to the plain of Naples," the driver of the press car said.

"The worst is over," Austin added.

"We have captured Castellammare Di Stabia and are heading east for Vesuvius and Naples.

"For the past five days of bitter fighting I have seen a mile added to the road of death each day."

OCTOBER
October is a scarlet month, a bronze month and a gold.
A month of lovely mists at dawn and breezes turning cold;
And some there are who say for it, and I am one, I fear,
October is the richest month and fairest of the year.

Charles Beales and Miss Cassatt Wedded Wednesday: Miss Evelyn Cassatt, daughter of George Cassatt, Hanover street, and Charles Beales, son of Mrs. C. William Beales, Carlisle street, were married Wednesday at Hagerstown, by the Rev. Mr. Bennett, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church. The couple returned to Gettysburg and are now residing here.

Weikert, East Middle street. Mrs. Rodgers resides in Rio Piedras, Porto Rico.

Mrs. Rodgers story, written shortly after the hurricane subsided, tells of the heavy loss of life, property damage and danger to her own life.

Artists Give Fine Program: A program unsurpassed for its artistry, expression and appeal was presented to a capacity audience in the Presbyterian church, Tuesday evening, by J. Herbert Springer, organist, and John W. Wilson, baritone, both of Harrisburg.

A free will offering of $85 was lifted. After expenses are deducted, the proceeds will be used to pay off the debt on the new organ.

POISON FOUND IN APARTMENT OF SLAIN MAN

Flashes Of Life

GOTHAM PIONEERS
New York, (AP)—Barbara Elliott and Anita Moore, two modern Worcester, Mass., girls now living here, solved New York's moving problem by applying New England pioneer ingenuity.

Unable to get a van during the Oct. 1 moving rush, they hired a horse and wagon.

Despite jibes from passersby and the fact that neither had ever before driven a horse, they got where they were going without a mishap—and without help.

TOAST

Harrisburg, (AP)—Toast is toast, buttered or not, ruled the Harrisburg Office of Price Administration.

The Philadelphia OPA disagreed, and said restaurants must butter the toast or reduce the price.

Pennsylvanians toasted the Philadelphia opinion.

CO-ED REVEILLE

Athens, Ga., (AP)—Started University of Georgia co-eds awoke to the tooting of a bugle sounding reveille through a loud speaker in Candler Hall.

The Navy, former occupant of the dormitory, had left the loud speaker connected to a bugle system.

ROOM AND BOARD

Monticello, Ark., (AP)—Sheriff L. W. Bell put up one month's free room and board in the county jail at a war bond auction—and had a taker.

Everett Calhoun, Drew county farmer, bid a $500 bond for the privilege. He didn't indicate whether he'd avail himself of the facilities.

JUNIOR !

Walnut Creek, Calif., (AP)—Lyman Stoddard, weekly newspaper publisher, found himself listed by the War Price and Rationing Board as a suspect in a gasoline coupons.

Lyman Stoddard, Jr., employed as a printer on his father's newspaper, is the ration board chairman.

The same witness reported another conversation a few days later. She said Mrs. Holt told of receiving a letter from her mother, Mrs. M. H. Lewis, in Oklahoma, describing how a man had died from the effects of a poisonous powder used to spray fruit. Miss Erskine quoting Mrs. Holt as asking:

"I wonder what kind of a powder that could be?"

Miss Erskine is a stepdaughter of Michael, the insurance salesman who testified earlier he had sold a $500 non-examination life insurance policy to Holt a few days before his death.

The couple will proceed to New Orleans, from where, federal authorities permitting, they will sail the Gulf of Mexico to Florida.

Upon their arrival at Sarasota, their son, Sgt. Albert Schenholm, Jr., will welcome them for the scheduled turkey dinner.

Schenholm worked for eight months and spent $6,000 in building the boat. The craft was transported on a big trailer truck from Bradford to Kittanning where it was launched.

EXTEND DIM-OUT

New York, Oct. 1 (AP)—A Thanksgiving Day dinner with their soldier son at Sarasota, Florida, 3,600 miles away, is the goal of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Schenholm, of Bradford, Pa., who left yesterday on their 32-foot sailboat "Square Head" for a voyage down the Ohio and Mississippi rivers.

The couple will proceed to New Orleans, from where, federal authorities permitting, they will sail the Gulf of Mexico to Florida.

Upon their arrival at Sarasota, their son, Sgt. Albert Schenholm, Jr., will welcome them for the scheduled turkey dinner.

Schenholm worked for eight months and spent $6,000 in building the boat. The craft was transported on a big trailer truck from Bradford to Kittanning where it was launched.

Mrs. Henderson, who was 71 years old, was removed to the sanitarium from her Millville home Sunday after she was stricken with pneumonia.

A life-long resident of Millville, Mrs. Henderson resided in the family homestead on Carmel road. Her husband, Chester, died six years ago.

Besides her son, Mrs. Henderson leaves a daughter, Mrs. Reuben Stadler of Los Angeles, California. Henderson was enroute by plane from Washington shortly after being informed of his mother's death.

The funeral will be Saturday.

Berlin Says Naples Is Lost

Stockholm, Oct. 1 (AP)—The Germans have evacuated Naples after destroying harbor installations, a Berlin dispatch to the newspaper, Aftonbladet said Thursday.

"Communistic revolt" and sabotage on a big scale were partly forcing the evacuation, the Germans said.

The military spokesman in Berlin said the "rebels" were cooperating with Allied troops south of Naples, and added that because of the nearness of the Allies and "the risk of new Allied landings in Naples itself German war chieftains consider it far too risky to keep troops in the city."

Gilbert Dickson Buys Drug Store: Gilbert Dickson, North Stratton street, who recently severed his position as registered pharmacist at the People's Drug store, Baltimore street, today announced the purchase of the Red Cross Pharmacy, Chambersburg street, from Dr. J. SUBSIDIES SEEK TO HOLD DOWN PRICE OF MILK

RAINFALL MAY AFFECT APPLES

Fruit growers viewed the rain that fell Thursday night and today with a speculative question as to its effect on the apple crop. Hard-pressed growers who have been having difficulty in obtaining help to harvest the nearly 2 million bushel crop, fear that the rain will cause such rapid development of the apples that they will be unable to pick them quickly enough with the present labor supply.

Thousands of apples have already dropped from the trees and the high winds accompanying the rain Thursday night sent hundreds of apples plummeting to the ground.

Some cracking was expected as a result of the rain with the moisture releasing long dormant nitrates causing a too rapid growth of the apples, most of which are much smaller than usual at the present time.

Producers spokesmen declared, however, their belief that the subsidy program, now in effect, would fail materially to boost dwindling supplies of apples and dairy products.

The subsidy plan contemplates the payment of federal benefits ranging from 25 to 50 cents per hundred pounds of whole milk to offset higher dairy feed costs. The War Food Administration estimated the subsidy would cost between $60,000,000 and $70,000,000 during the next three months.

Representatives of major producer cooperatives told a Senate agriculture subcommittee yesterday they believed that milk supplies would continue to drop and that general rationing might be necessary unless the administration allowed OPA retail price ceilings to go up about a cent per quart.

LIMITING DISTRIBUTION

The WFA meantime ordered that, starting Saturday distribution of dairy products be limited through a system of dealer quotas based upon deliveries made in June. The restrictions, designed to avert rationing, apply to Baltimore, Washington, Roanoke, Virginia, Richmond, and Norfolk—Portsmouth—Newport News, Virginia, area, Cincinnati, Toledo, Dayton, Canton and Cleveland, Ohio

Letters To The Editor

Dear Sir:

The Service Edition of The Gettysburg Times has proven to be an excellent morale builder for the service men and women of Adams county. The praises and laurels heaped upon the editors and staff members, through the column "Letters to the Editor," are well earned and modestly stated.

It is with great interest that I read the Service Edition, but it is with greater interest that I read items about my fellow colleagues in the Finance department. The recent article telling of the exploits of Cpl. Jack Keith, with the Finance department, in Iceland, proved very absorbing. Although members of the Finance department are not classified as a distinct and separate organization of the Army, they are a most integral part of the Army, attached to all three of our main forces, namely the Army Air Forces; the Army Ground Forces, and the Army Service Forces.

Everywhere, over the entire world, where American service men and women are stationed, members of the Finance department are located also. Paying the armed forces, either in francs, shillings, pounds, kronas, dollars, dinars, cruzeiros or rupees, is but one of the varied duties of the Finance department. Our department is also commonly known as the "Information Bureau of the Army," and this requires both the officer and enlisted personnel to be well versed with Army regulations, War department bulletins and circulars, finance bulletins and circulars, etc., plus the ever changing acts of Congress, pertaining to the status of the armed forces.

Several weeks ago the service men and women located in the vicinity of Springfield, were the guests of Governor and Mrs. Dwight H. Green, at an informal tea dance and buffet in the Illinois state mansion house. It is believed that this event was the first occasion ever that the governor of any state had entertained the men and women in the service. Approximately 300 service men, their wives, guests and USO hostesses, danced to the strains of Lou Hahn's orchestra. Later, as the party progressed, the assembled group were taken on a tour of inspection, through the mansion, after which time, a buffet lunch was served in the garden terrace, adjoining the mansion.

In conclusion, I wish to say that the folks of Springfield have been Thirty-eight million dollars worth of War Bonds surround Charles R. Mann and Fred Gerst, supervisors, as they check serial numbers on $50 War Bond packages of 250 bonds each, in the Securities Section of the Division of Loans and Currency of the Treasury, Washington, D. C.

A million bonds a day are received from the Bureau of Engraving and Printing, and another million are sealed into 4,000 packages for mailing. Exact accountability for every bond assembled and sent out must be kept daily.

Fuel Administration's request against pleasure traveling. Instead of thousands of automobiles on the avenues, there were only a few hundred, and most of their occupants were viewed with ill-concealed displeasure by people who had fallen in line with the Government's effort to conserve the supply of gasoline.

Not a few of the tourists sought local liverys Sunday morning and made the trip over the battlefield with horse and buggy. It was the first time for a number of years that these liverys have had such a demand.

Big Enrollment as Schools Open: With the largest enrollment in their history, the public schools of Gettysburg opened on Monday morning.

Extend Air Service: (By Telegraph). Washington, Sept. 7—Regular air mail service between Chicago and New York will begin on October 1, post office officials announced today. The mail will be taken by pilots in 150 mile relays and 10 hours will be required for the trip.

Matinee Draws Big Crowd: The Labor Day driving matinee at the track west of town drew a crowd estimated at 1,000 people. The arrangements of the event were in charge of Frank Hersh, racing secretary of the Gettysburg Driving Association, and everything passed off quickly and to the delight of the large crowd.

The race between Joe Promise and Eddie C. was the feature of the day. It took five heats to decide and the people generally were with Eddie C., so that there was great enthusiasm when he took the fifth heat.

Aid administration, announced Thursday. "When it is remembered," he commented, "that the state-wide average was once one in seven—and in some localities even one out of every four—the present load shows the unfairness of sneering at relief recipients as a group who are unwilling to work."

During August, Erdman said, relief costs went down $128,106 under August, 1942, with a decrease of 7,171 in the case load and 17,291 fewer individuals receiving assistance.

Shortage Of Men In Nearby Plants

Lancaster, Pa., Oct. 1 (AP) —

War industries in Lancaster, Harrisburg, York and Chambersburg will have to find 15,000 workers in the next six months. Harold J. Mehl, area director of the Labor Manpower committee, said at a conference of industry representatives from this area here Wednesday.

"These needs must be met by men, part-time workers and men drawn from unessential industries," he said.

The Labor Manpower committee is an advisory body of the War Manpower Commission.

THEY TURNED THEIR TENTS INTO NEWSPAPERS —

Helped Win a War!*

G EORGE WASHINGTON recognized the role of a free press in wartime.

When paper grew scarce during the Revolution, he ordered his oldest tents turned into newsprint so that his army might follow the struggle for liberty in the other colonies. His forces drew on their own scanty stores of white paper to insure the printing of war news.

It was worth while.

The "new power" — the newspaper — soon made itself felt. The Revolutionary leaders all respected the press and defended its freedom. The Massachusetts House of Representatives in an historic declaration affirmed that "The Liberty of the Press is a great Bulwark of the Liberty of the People."

Today, more than 150 years later, a free press still is America's "great Bulwark" and is helping win America's greatest war!

Richard Utz Dies At 2 P.M.; Hurt In Crash

Richard Utz, 30, of 55 South street, who was seriously injured in an auto accident Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock in a two-car collision 2½ miles east of here along the Lincoln highway, died at the Warner hospital this afternoon at 2:03 o'clock.

Utz suffered shock, a fracture of the skull, laceration of the scalp, fracture of a bone in the left side of his face, contusions of the left shoulder and upper arm, possible fracture of ribs on the left side and other lacerations and bruises.

Surviving are his widow, the former Ruth Miller; a two and a half-year-old daughter, Joyce; these brothers, Earl and John, Philadelphia; Harry, Washington, D. C.; Charles, Barlow street; Edward, Bigerville; William, Claysburg, and one sister, Mrs. Harold Brown, Fairfield.

Funeral arrangements will be announced Friday.

Dr. C. G. Crist, Adams county coroner, announced this afternoon an inquest will be held as soon as the condition of others injured in the crash permits.

Sergeant James Barnes, Camp Butner, North Carolina, who lost his left arm and eye among other injuries, was reported improved while the condition of Harry Crouse, Gettysburg R. 2, and Raymond Stotter, 76 Steinwehr avenue, also injured in the accident, was reported as "satisfactory."

The four men were injured when cars driven by Sergeant Barnes and Mr. Crouse collided 2½ miles east of town on the Lincoln highway about 7 o'clock Tuesday evening. Private George Ackerson, of the state police, who is continuing his investigation reported after the accident that Sergeant Barnes had driven from the south side of the three lane highway to the north side of the road into the path of the Crouse car to cause the collision.

Both boards in Adams county will send men to Harrisburg to fill their October quotas early in the month—the exact date not being released for publication.

Some Fathers To Go

Harrisburg, Sept. 30 (AP)—Pennsylvania Selective Service headquarters today authorized the commonwealth's 422 local boards to call a specific number of pre-Pearl Harbor fathers in filling their October induction quotas.

The total number of fathers to be called in the state and by individual local boards was withheld as restricted information.

"After making a thorough analysis of reports received from all of the local boards of Pennsylvania, it will be necessary to call some pre-Pearl Harbor fathers in October to fill Pennsylvania's quota," said a statement by Col. Richard K. Mellon, state Selective Service director.

Not Enough Non-Fathers

He added that reports from the 422 local boards "indicated that sufficient non-fathers are not available to completely fill" the call for next month.

"Every effort is being made to call as few fathers as possible in October," Colonel Mellon asserted and promised that:

"A continuing effort will be made to use non-fathers to fill future calls as extensively as possible, and thereby reduce to an absolute minimum the number of fathers that must be called to fill requisitions from the armed forces."

Colonel Mellon explained that a non-father under draft regulations is a married man with a child conceived after December 8, 1941 (born after September 14, 1942). A father is a man who is maintaining a bona fide family relationship with a child or children conceived prior to December 8, 1941.

Most States Taking Dads

(By the Associated Press)

Washington, Sept. 30—With Congress still debating the wisdom of the bond drive with Gunner's Mate Landon Howery, veteran of four major naval engagements in the south Pacific as the guest of honor completed its itinerary Wednesday evening with an open air meeting in center square at 9:30 o'clock.

Howery addressed twenty gatherings of factory workers and towns people during his three-day tour of the county. Meetings were held at factories during the day and public sessions in the evening.

Wednesday evening the caravan visited Littlestown, Fairfield, and Gettysburg. Because of a confusion as to the hour of the meeting no session was held at Littlestown. Howery, however, addressed four gatherings of Littlestown workers during the afternoon.

Accompanying the party were Edmund W. Thomas, county chairman, Leighton C. Taylor, Paul Thomas, Fred G. Pfeffer and Paul L. Roy.

Howery returned to Philadelphia this noon.

At Fairfield the meeting was preceded by a band concert by the Fairfield school band.

CHARGE WITHDRAWN

A charge of surety of the peace laid before Justice of the Peace John H. Baschore against Ellis Smith, Gettysburg, was withdrawn Monday evening and the costs in class 2 and continue to be deferred.

$2,500 DAMAGE IN SUNDAY FIRE

Baled waste paper valued at $1,600 and a building valued at $900 were destroyed by fire about 10:30 o'clock Sunday morning at the city dump near town along the Littlestown road.

Paul Plank, owner of the dump, and his wife were both burned in an attempt to extinguish the fire before the firemen arrived. Mrs. Plank suffered burns of the face and legs while Mr. Plank was burned about the hands.

The fire started in a bundle of paper while the Planks were engaged in baling waste paper in the building. It could not be determined whether the fire started from a spark from the engine of a baler being used to bundle the paper or whether a spark from a fire in the dump was blown into the paper as some assistants carried some of it to the building for baling.

Funeral arrangements will be announced Friday.

Dr. C. G. Crist, Adams county coroner, announced this afternoon an inquest will be held as soon as the condition of others injured in the crash permits.

Sergeant James Barnes, Camp Butner, North Carolina, who lost his left arm and eye among other injuries, was reported improved while the condition of Harry Crouse, Gettysburg R. 2, and Raymond Stotter, 76 Steinwehr avenue, also injured in the accident, was reported as "satisfactory."

The four men were injured when cars driven by Sergeant Barnes and Mr. Crouse collided 2½ miles east of town on the Lincoln highway about 7 o'clock Tuesday evening. Private George Ackerson, of the state police, who is continuing his investigation reported after the accident that Sergeant Barnes had driven from the south side of the three lane highway to the north side of the road into the path of the Crouse car to cause the collision.

Both boards in Adams county will send men to Harrisburg to fill their October quotas early in the month—the exact date not being released for publication.

Some Fathers To Go

Harrisburg, Sept. 30 (AP)—Pennsylvania Selective Service headquarters today authorized the commonwealth's 422 local boards to call a specific number of pre-Pearl Harbor fathers in filling their October induction quotas.

The total number of fathers to be called in the state and by individual local boards was withheld as restricted information.

"After making a thorough analysis of reports received from all of the local boards of Pennsylvania, it will be necessary to call some pre-Pearl Harbor fathers in October to fill Pennsylvania's quota," said a statement by Col. Richard K. Mellon, state Selective Service director.

Not Enough Non-Fathers

He added that reports from the 422 local boards "indicated that sufficient non-fathers are not available to completely fill" the call for next month.

"Every effort is being made to call as few fathers as possible in October," Colonel Mellon asserted and promised that:

"A continuing effort will be made to use non-fathers to fill future calls as extensively as possible, and thereby reduce to an absolute minimum the number of fathers that must be called to fill requisitions from the armed forces."

Colonel Mellon explained that a non-father under draft regulations is a married man with a child conceived after December 8, 1941 (born after September 14, 1942). A father is a man who is maintaining a bona fide family relationship with a child or children conceived prior to December 8, 1941.

Washington, Sept. 30—With Congress still debating the wisdom of the bond drive with Gunner's Mate Landon Howery, veteran of four major naval engagements in the south Pacific as the guest of honor completed its itinerary Wednesday evening with an open air meeting in center square at 9:30 o'clock.

Howery addressed twenty gatherings of factory workers and towns people during his three-day tour of the county. Meetings were held at factories during the day and public sessions in the evening.

Wednesday evening the caravan visited Littlestown, Fairfield, and Gettysburg. Because of a confusion as to the hour of the meeting no session was held at Littlestown. Howery, however, addressed four gatherings of Littlestown workers during the afternoon.

Accompanying the party were Edmund W. Thomas, county chairman, Leighton C. Taylor, Paul Thomas, Fred G. Pfeffer and Paul L. Roy.

Howery returned to Philadelphia this noon.

At Fairfield the meeting was preceded by a band concert by the Fairfield school band.

COOPERATIVE TO START BUILDING LINES, MONDAY

The Adams Electric Cooperative, Inc., which before the war had set a record for line construction work among young cooperatives, on Monday will begin its first major line building job undertaken since Pearl Harbor.

Workmen of the Broadway Maintenance Corporation of New York will begin on Monday to build 120 miles of new electric lines through seven townships in York county which will serve approximately 420 rural customers who have never had high line electric current on their farms.

The agreement with the New York firm, which held a government contract at the Letterkenny ordnance depot at Chambersburg, calls for completion of the job in 90 days.

The contractor will furnish labor only with the REA providing materials secured through priorities granted after WPB approval of the project. The contractor already has started to distribute poles along the staked line routes although construction work does not start until Monday. Thirty trucks and four hole-digging outfitts are on hand to rush the job to completion.

Have 1,622 Customers

The lines will be built in Jackson, Heidelberg, Codorus, North Codorus, Manheim and West Manheim townships and will be served from a power substation to be built at Iron Ridge, between Hanover and Spring Grove. The power will be purchased from the York Edison Light and Power company. Copper and steel wires will be used on the new lines.

The Cooperative, which has its headquarters in Gettysburg, energized its first lines early in May, 1941, and now serves 1,622 customers along 650 miles of electric lines in Adams, Cumberland and Millard F. Stoner, and house and supply, H. Harold Miller, chairman; James Alvey and Carl A. Baum.

The Rev. Father Stock presided in the absence of Dr. E. H. Markley, president, who is ill. Attending were the following directors: Carl A. Baum, William G. Durbarow, Charles H. Smith, Edmund W. Thomas, the Rev. Marie E. Stock, H. Harold Miller, N. B. Schnurman, Judge E. P. Miller and William G. Durbarow; finance, Henry M. Scharf, chairman; Charles H. Smith, Wilbur A. BIGLER ELEVEN PLAYS 6-6 TIE WITH JUNIATA

Lt. Eddie Julian At Pre-Flight School

Lt. (jg) Edward Julian, former Gettysburg college football, basketball and baseball star, has reported to the U. S. Navy Pre-Flight school at Athens, Georgia, to assist in training more than 2,000 aviation trainees of the Navy, Marine Corps and Coast Guard.

Julian graduated from Gettysburg college in 1930 and for a number of years was head coach at Shippensburg State Teachers' college.

Highlight of the game was a 65-yard dash by Eddie Utz, right half-back, late in the first period for Bigler's lone score.

Juniata tied the count in the third period when it drove 60 yards to the one-yard mark from where Stetler smashed through the line for the score.

Play in the first period was confined mostly to midfield with neither team being able to make any headway. In the fading minutes of the game the Canners secured possession of the pigskin on their own 35 after a Juniata kick. Following a time out, Utz circled wide on a left end run and behind some nice interference, streaked down field for his touchdown. Utz attempted to place-kick the extra point but the kick was low and consequently blocked.

Canners Threaten

Sparked by some fine ball toting on the part of Clyde Lady, Biglerville moved deep into enemy territory midway in the second period but a 15-yard penalty against the Canners for holding broke up the drive. Biglerville punted to the Juniata 33-yard stripe and the kick was returned a few plays later, the Canners taking the ball on the visitors' 30. Juniata held for downs and took the ball on the 25 and the half ended shortly afterwards.

Juniata took the second half kick-off on its own 40 and marched 60 yards for its score aided greatly by a 15-yard penalty against Biglerville which put the ball on the 35. A pass to Stetler put the ball on the 17 and two line plunges made it a first down on the four. Stetler then smashed through from the one-yard stripe on the third try. A pass for the extra point was wild.

Halt Drive

Biglerville came back in great style and marched down field only to be halted on the five-yard mark. Yost returned the kickoff to midfield and then Clyde Lady got off on two nice runs to put the ball on the 14. However, Juniata braced and took possession on the five.

A smashing attack in the last part of the final period led by Stetler and Fairman threw a real scare into the Biglerville camp. Juniata marching to the one-yard line where the game ended.

Coach Smith's entire outfit showed distinct possibilities and should develop into a first class outfit with more experience.

RED ROSES TAKE GOVERNOR'S CUP

(By The Associated Press)

The Lancaster Red Roses held clear title to the championship of the Interstate league today.

Winning the pennant in the regular season, they added the Governor's cup to their trophies Monday night by capturing the seventh and deciding game of the post-season playoffs from the York White Roses, 6 to 5, before a crowd of 7,267 that set a new league record.

The Red Roses won the hard way, coming from behind after they trailed three games to one at one point in the final series.

Les McCrabb, formerly of the Philadelphia Athletics, was the winning pitcher in the final game, which was interrupted by a blackout. Up to the time the sirens howled, young Jack McClure, Lancaster's starting pitcher, had allowed York four runs, while the Red Roses were unable to score. When the lights came on again, the hometowners teed off on Jim Walsh, York hurler, and knotted the count at 4-all.

Look to '44

McCrabb took the hill in the fifth, after McClure was lifted for a pinch-hitter. His teammates batted over the winning tallies in the seventh, with York failing by one run to tie the score in a ninth inning rally.

Lancaster won't be able to rest on its laurels, however, but must begin rebuilding for 1944, because the sale of Manager Woody Wheaton, along with George Keil and Lou Flick, the league's two leading hitters, to the Philadelphia Athletics, was announced last night. Pitcher Charley Bowles, winner of 19 games in the regular season, went to the A's last week.

McCrabb took the hill in the fifth, after McClure was lifted for a pinch-hitter. His teammates batted over the winning tallies in the seventh, with York failing by one run to tie the score in a ninth inning rally.

Lancaster won't be able to rest on its laurels, however, but must begin rebuilding for 1944, because the sale of Manager Woody Wheaton, along with George Keil and Lou Flick, the league's two leading hitters, to the Philadelphia Athletics, was announced last night. Pitcher Charley Bowles, winner of 19 games in the regular season, went to the A's last week.

The Lancaster Red Roses held clear title to the championship of the Interstate league today.

Winning the pennant in the regular season, they added the Governor's cup to their trophies Monday night by capturing the seventh and deciding game of the post-season playoffs from the York White Roses, 6 to 5, before a crowd of 7,267 that set a new league record.

The Red Roses won the hard way, coming from behind after they trailed three games to one at one point in the final series.

Les McCrabb, formerly of the Philadelphia Athletics, was the winning pitcher in the final game, which was interrupted by a blackout. Up to the time the sirens howled, young Jack McClure, Lancaster's starting pitcher, had allowed York four runs, while the Red Roses were unable to score. When the lights came on again, the hometowners teed off on Jim Walsh, York hurler, and knotted the count at 4-all.

TEMPLE BEATS VMI 27 TO 0 IN CURTAIN RISER

By CHARLES WELSH

Philadelphia, Pa., Sept. 25 (AP)—Ray Morrison, the man who teaches the Owls, was having a hard time today finding a crying towel or a sympathetic shoulder.

For weeks Coach Morrison, and Bob Geasey, who beats the publicity drums for Temple University, have been pointing with a gloomy sort of pride to the football team roster which lists (1) a single senior;

(2) a single junior; (3) a herd of freshmen. Not a member of the squad was a letterman last year.

Fully realizing that they are facing perhaps their toughest game of the year, the Maroon players have been working hard this week in correcting errors which cropped up in the Carlsbad game last week.

At Top Strength

Mel Dry's outfit will be at full strength. Curvin Sanders, guard, who missed the opener due to an arm ailment, is back in harness and ready for action. He will replace Sperry in the starting lineup.

Bernard Little, midget halfback who performed so well last week, will probably be back at his old position. Sterrett Dorsey and Eugene Timbers will play halfback and fullback, respectively, with Tommy Small holding down quarterback. Small has recovered from an injury and will replace Shanner in the lineup.

One change is also expected to be made in the line. George Thrush will take over Eugene Fidler's post at right end. The remainder of the lineup will be intact with Pat McGaughlin at left end; Sammy and Charley Weaver at tackles; Dick Ealey at guard and Fred Haehnlen at center.

Coach Ealey will probably stick to the lineup that scored such an impressive victory over Delone Catholic last Friday. It will include Divine and Yost, ends; Gouker and Gebensieben, tackles; Wentz and Gobrecht, guards; Rebling, center; Rightmire, quarterback; Musselman and Baublitz halfbacks, and Gross, fullback.

Seven Lettermen

Of the above lineup seven are lettermen. They include Yost, Divine, Gouker, Wentz, Rightmire, Musselman and Gross.

The Nighthawks' forward wall averages 182 pounds per man, the heaviest being Gouker who scales 250 pounds. The backfield averages 162 pounds. Against that the Maroons will send a line which averages 154 pounds and a backfield of 144.

Other South Penn conference games listed for Friday evening are Waynesboro at Carlisle and Mechanicsburg at Hershey.

At 10,000 Present

They made up in speed and the old college try what they lacked in experience. Some 10,000 fans teetered on the stadium seats as they watched Scarback Tony Hubka and passer Ralph Cardillo spark an offensive that rolled up 20 first downs, and 271 yards from scrimmage, while the Owl defense held the Cadets to a net of 37 yards and four first downs.

Hubka accounted for most of the yardage in the first two touch-down drives, with Sid Roche scoring each time. Cardillo completed five of six passes, two of them for touchdowns. Both are New Jersey natives. Hubka from Perth Amboy and Cardillo from Lyndhurst.

While the Jerseymen were spearheading the Pennsylvania team, a Pennsylvania, Marvin Jones of Upper Darby, carried the load for the Virginians. Jones, also a freshman, passed, kicked and ran the ball and made many a tackle, but not quite enough to stave off defeat.

It is a matter of simple arithmetic," said Seth Gordon, executive director of the State Game Commission.

"Pennsylvania has been allotted 6,000,000 shotgun shells for the small-game and migratory bird season. About 50 per cent of the estimated 600,000 hunters will not be allowed to make purchases under War Production Board regulations because of reserves on hand."

"That leaves a probable 300,000 eligible to buy shells. If you divide that number into 6,000,000 you get 20 and that's what the average nimrod can expect in the way of shotgun shell purchases despite the fact it is entitled to 25."

Cartridges Allotted Too

If hunters are counting on getting non-hunter friends to buy shells under the federal allotment plan they had better dismiss the thought, Gordon warned, because such gifts are illegal.

However, there are no restrictions on hunters who already have big ammunition reserves sharing them with the game if it is played anywhere except at Annapolis or West Point.

The game has been scheduled tentatively for November 27, at West Point.

Legal Claim

In his wire to Morgenthau, Sam said:

"Press reports originating in New York state the treasury department is investigating possibilities of the Army-Navy game being held in New York for war bond purposes. The Army-Navy game is under contract to be played in Municipal Stadium here. Athletic associations of both services have indicated their preferences for Philadelphia as the site of the game."

Taking cognizance of stories in New York newspapers saying that the service classic may be staged in Yankee stadium as a war bond selling project, Samuel sent wires to Undersecretary of War Patterson and Secretary of the Treasury Morgenthau pointing out once more that Philadelphia holds a contract for the game if it is played anywhere except at Annapolis or West Point.

The game has been scheduled tentatively for November 27, at West Point.

The rules provide that no individual may purchase more than 25 shotgun shells and must also sign a form saying the proposed purchase will not bring his reserves to more than 50 shells.

Highpower rifle cartridges and 22 calibre shells are also to be sold under the allotment plan which goes into effect October 1. Hunters will be allowed a maximum of 20 of the former and 50 of the latter.

Just Folks
By Edgar A. Guest

RICH BY NIGHT
Poor by day and rich by night!
Rich in hopes and dreams and prayers.

Rich in sleep which puts to flight
All the busy day's affairs,
Soothes the hurt of every sting,
Makes the humblest man a king.

Rich by day! The ways of ease
Often spoil man's appetite,
Lead to weakness and disease.
Weary men sleep best at night!
For the hours God meant for rest,
Being poor by day is best.

Weariness has guards which keep
Fears and spectres grim away.
Richest they by night who sleep
Till the dawning of the day.
Slumber, soothng and secure,
Is God's blessing on the poor.

NEWSCASTERS, ATTENTION
"What's new," did you ask? An event has occurred

Which I'm sure from your question as yet you've not heard.

There is news most important which Winchell could flash

Instead of that gossip he peddles for cash.

Here's an item by newscasters fit to be told:

Ellen Elizabeth's now three years old!

Were I Lowell Thomas this evening, I'd say:

"It's Ellen Elizabeth's birthday today."

Were I Mister Swing to the wide world I'd shout

This news which her grandpa's gone crazy about.

Were I Gabriel Heatter this fact I'd unfold:

Ellen Elizabeth's turned three years old!

Tell Fidler or any newscaster your name.

Here's something that really will add to his fame.

Leave out the commercials or cut down the spiel.

This is no rumor! Here's truth to reveal:

Tell the boys on the papers the presses to hold:

Ellen Elizabeth's just three years old!

QUATRAINS
TWO CRAFTS

Some work with words for good or ill

To grammar's rules.

To others are given the richer skill

To work with tools.

CURE FOR GRUMBLING

When I am moved to wail and sigh

That taxes now are much too high

I think of youngsters far away

Who live in foxholes night and day.

RAIN

Rain in the summer is mercy and pity

Showered on the people of country and city;

Joy when it starts and delight when it stops;

Good for man's spirit and good for the crops.

GOOD LOSER

Since ill-temper won't alter the score

And you've lost what you've struggled to win,

When it's too late to strike a blow more

Shake hands with your rival and grin.

BALTIMORE ORIOLES

Today upon a maple tree

I saw some living jewelry!

Two bits of gold, alive and strong,

And gifted both for flight and song,

A sign of faith for doubting souls!

To-wit: a pair of orioles.

No monarch's crown or diadem

Has craftsmanship alike to them.

Exquisite were the robes they wore

In colors of Lord Baltimore

Designed the eye of man to hold.

Two lovely gems of black and gold!

Perhaps the good Lord knew that men

Would turn to doubting now and then,

And hurt by grief and pressed by care

Lose faith that God is everywhere

And so those orioles, gold and black,

Were fashioned just to win us back.

Flashes Of Life

CALAMITY

Cleveland — Mrs. Catherine Huebler, 79, told police she was very much upset because a truck crashed into her house.

The impact caused the fall of a cake she was baking.

SCOOPED

Aurora, Ill.—While reporters for the Aurora Beacon-News were out digging up news today, a passenger stopped in at the office to report a story they had overlooked—a fire in the newspaper building.

TRAVEL TIP-UP

Goldfield, Nev.—Driver Fred Nazarene stopped his bus and ordered the passengers out—all except Mrs. Rosie Basket and another woman.

Later he called the passengers back and introduced an unexpected addition—Mrs. Basket's new baby girl.

The bus company said it would give the baby a $100 war bond for being the first baby born on a bus in Nevada.

NARROW

Coeur D'Alene, Idaho—Sheriff's Deputy Cliff Johnson was called to a lonely, one-way country road at 6 a. m., and found two motorists sitting in their cars glaring at each other.

They had been there 12 hours, said the deputy, each refusing to back up to a wide spot in the road and let the other by.

ROAD BAR

Missoula, Mont. (AP)—Motorcyclist Weir Stone and his passenger, Glenn Corney, sped up a hill and collided with something. They were thrown to the road.

Stone, first to regain consciousness, looked up—just as a large black bear arose unsteadily and wobbled off into the forest.

YOUTH PROBLEM

Seattle (AP)—A. J. Browning's bantam hens hatched five turkey eggs last spring.

It's proved quite upsetting.

The turkeys try to huddle under the bantam's wings, and are so big they topple over the tiny mother hens.

But the bantam rooster crows with exceeding pride.

WASHOUT

Clearfield, Utah (AP)—An ingenious Utah farmer built a fire under a bathtub to warm the water.

He didn't have time to bathe—the flames spread too fast.

His home, barn and other outbuildings were destroyed.

LASSO LESSON

Los Angeles, (AP)—Radio Patrolman Earl C. Gardner lassoed a yearling heifer which had escaped from a truck.

Then his roping skill boomed.

He was dragged through a lot filled with tin cans, and eventually needed hospital treatment.

UNFORGIVEABLE

San Francisco, (AP)—Mrs. Lucille Riquard was granted a divorce from George Riquard on grounds of cruelty.

As the climax to a quarrel, Mrs. Riquard told Judge A. J. Fritz, her husband punctured her 55 cans of rationed fruit and vegetables.

TEST FLIGHT

Los Angeles, (AP)—Beatrice McVonville is anxiously watching the sky to see if her 31 homing pigeons will prove true to their tradition.

A burglar stole them.

UNHORSED, PERHAPS

Fort Riley, Kas. (AP)—What is the fastest selling commodity at the Army post exchange at Fort Riley?

You're wrong!

Foot powder tops the list of the modern cavalryman's purchases.

The amount sold in a year weighs more than two tons—not including the output at four free dispensaries.

UNSHARE-THE-RIDE

Kenilworth, Utah, (AP)—School-district officials explained it like this:

The school bus driver told the students they'd have to be less

PRECIOUS BONUS

New York (AP)—Gasoline at a premium? Samuel Hazelcorn has given away 2,500 gallons this week and has a like amount still to dispense.

Hazelcorn, who operates a fleet of taxis, pumps five gallons of gasoline into the tanks of all motorists who buy a war bond for him.

The precious fluid is absolutely free—except for Federal tax and ration coupons.

HELPFUL HINTS

Fort Douglas, Utah (AP)—Soldiers found this note pinned to their soft drink machine:

"To whomever found my flash-light:

"If it won't work, unwind it a few times. If the darn thing still gives you trouble, throw it in the ash can."

Well I was off the subject of the rest camp, but the good news was the cause of it. Now let me tell you something about our eats or "chow" as the Army tells everyone. Here's

Letters To The Editor

With Our Service Men

Dear Sir:

I would like to take this opportunity to tell you how much I appreciate receiving The Gettysburg Times.

Having been in the service two and a half years, I now realize how great a task this war is and that it can be completed only by the cooperation of all; you, the staff of The Gettysburg Times, are doing your share in the war effort by sending us men your publication free of charge. So full of local news it reminds always of the place we are fighting for and want to go back to. You only realize how nice the USA is when you get into another country. In this letter I want to give my best regards to all the people in Gettysburg and Fairfield; and most of all to my own relatives and friends.

It is very hot over here in Africa. We only have rain two months out of a year. It is also very dusty and sand blown and the nights are very cool.

My stay here has been very active and very interesting. I may see many more countries before I return to the States. I have no idea when that will be; but it is my belief that it will be much sooner than most of us think.

Thanking you again for your kindness in sending me The Gettysburg Times, I remain,

Sincerely yours,
CPL. ELLIS R. WORTZ

Dear Sir:

At this time I will try to acquaint you and the people of Adams county with the news and present stage of our training here at Camp Howze. The Division Artillery is now in the latter part of its training, before leaving on war maneuvers. From the present time until February 1, we'll be living in the field for the better part of the time. The 331st Field Artillery is combined with the 341st Infantry as a combat team and are now on "small" maneuvers.

Our training for actual warfare is taking place in the vicinity of the Red River. Our Battery is concerned mostly with the 105 mm. Howitzers and will be right with the 341 Infantry in battle. In a recent "problem" a few of our high explosive shells were landing within 100 yards of the Infantry. Our combat team is nearly designated as the "blue" army, with the exception of a problem last week when we were the "reds." The commanders had our problem planned as to have the blue army to capture us but it turned out just the opposite. For these maneuvers our men are given a password and we must remember it so as to be free from capture by our own troops.

It's proved quite upsetting.

The turkeys try to huddle under the bantam's wings, and are so big they topple over the tiny mother hens.

Because his nomination on the Democratic ticket was secured by a one vote margin, a spokesman for the commission said, it was decided to wait the count of the service men's ballots this afternoon before withdrawing on the Democratic ticket. If after the count of the soldiers' ballots he is still the leading candidate, Mr. Beales told the commission, he wishes his name withdrawn.

SERVICES HELD FOR LOST SAILOR

Services honoring the memory of Donald H. Starry, S 1/c, 18-year-old son of Arthur H. Starry, Aspers R. D. 1, who died on September 17 in a hospital in northern Ireland, were conducted Sunday afternoon in the Friends Grove Brethren church, Aspers R. D. 1. Many persons were in attendance.

The sermon was delivered by the Rev. W. N. Zobler, Gettysburg, who used as his subject, "Though He Shall Die, Yet Will I Trust Him." A large photograph of the young sailor stood in the front of the church and those in attendance at the service filed past it while the church organist played several appropriate selections and Harold Harlacker sang "The End of the Way."

The minister read a letter written on August 30 in which the Rev. Cross notified Donald Starry's family of his condition. He also read a letter written on September 7 by the young man in which he stated he was "getting along all right."

GROWERS DIVIDE '43 APPLE CROP AMONG 3 FIRMS

The Knouse corporation, Orrtanna Canning company and Adams Apple Products corporation agreed Monday night to purchase the apples of the members of the Adams County Fruit Growers' Marketing committee and the 40 growers represented by the Cooperative Fruit Growers' Cooperative in bulk, paying the highest prices that will be given for Pennsylvania apples between now and December 1 as the price for all of the apples delivered by cooperating growers.

Most of the apples will go to the Knouse corporation, according to the division made by the committee Monday night with approximately 70 per cent of the Marketing committee apples being turned over to the Knouse corporation and 30 per cent to the Adams Apple firm. The Cooperative growers' group decided to sell a majority of its apples to Knouse, some to Adams Apple and reserved the right to sell others to other processing plants in this section.

Expect OPA Announcement

Prices were set by the bargaining committee at the meeting in the Hotel Gettysburg with the price to be based on the decision of OPA authorities as to the highest price to be paid for apples by the processors.

That decision was expected today with the return of M. E. Knouse and Elmer Yoder, who represented the county at hearings held at Washington, Monday. Hearings have been held on the question of price "floors" and "ceilings" on apples for the last several weeks before OPA and Department of Agriculture officials in Washington, it was stated, with some decision expected from Monday's session. Mr. Knouse is a consultant for the Department of Agriculture on apples. Mr. Yoder is a member of an apple industrialists' committee which met with the OPA at the same time.

No estimate was made of the number of apples to be produced by members of the apple marketing committee or of the cooperative growers, but the members of the committee present said the crop would run from 35 to 50 per cent of last year's production. Questionnaires sent to growers belonging to the committee and cooperative are expected to be returned within the next few days, it was stated, so that a definite allocation of the apples may be made.

Expects 80,000 Bushels

The Orrtanna Canning company can be considered, for the purpose of the division, as the Knouse Corporation. Howard Musselman, who represented both processing organizations, told the committee members. He pointed out that all of their canning is to be done this year by the Knouse Corporation and that the only interest of the Orrtanna company is to purchase a certain amount of the canned products from the Knouse company for further resale. All of the apples sold by the committee last year were divided between Adams Apple and Knouse Corporation.

The Adams Apple group will receive more than 80,000 bushels of apples from the committee and cooperative growers, it was estimated. No figure was given for the amount that the Knouse Corporation would obtain except that the number of bushels would be more than twice the amount sent to the Aspers plant.

Discuss Uniform Prices

While most of the apple trees will bear as many apples this year as last, the apples will be smaller and as a result number of bushels will be about 35 per cent of last year's crop, the growers present estimated.

Much of the meeting was taken up by a discussion on methods of stabilizing the market so that all growers would receive the same prices for the same grade of apples. Both canner representatives and growers agreed that the prices should be stabilized although the canners present pointed out that there are no such grades as butter or juice apples. Only first, second and cider apple grades are employed according to present regulations, the canners stated, unless government regulations allow the establishment of a fourth grade for apples to be used for alcohol, "apple honey" and other commercial uses. The canners explained that different prices might be paid for apples that are used in the making of apple juice and apple butter because of mechanical necessities.

Not Setting Precedent

Apples that might bring a price of $1.50 may be used in apple butter making at the same time that apples that are worth $1.00 are being used for apple butter. The canners said this was no discrimination against the grower but an unfortunate necessity on the part of the canner. The higher priced apples may be used for the butter and juice products because of commitments for the butter or juice and inability to obtain the cheaper apples.

Plans of the canners to purchase the entire crop of the committee growers and to pay for the crop at the highest price allowed throughout the season should not be considered as a precedent for future years when there are no price ceilings, the canners made clear. After the present emergency period the canners asserted, they will have to

Medical Discharge For Former Teacher

Clyde L. Kennedy, former teacher in the Huntington township schools, has received a medical discharge from the U. S. Army, it was announced today. Mr. Kennedy was discharged after a year of service due to a recurrence of a knee trouble caused by an injury he received while playing baseball at York Springs a number of years ago.

He had been made a technical corporal and received word he had been promoted to technical sergeant a few hours after being given his discharge. He was stationed at Camp Shelby.

It is expected that he will return to the teaching profession in Huntington township next week, it was stated.

On July 26 Mr. Kennedy and Miss Mildred Arnold, Dillsburg, were married at Winchester, Virginia. Mrs. Kennedy is continuing with her duties at the Naval Depot at Mechanicsburg for the present.

DR. T. L. CLINE IS LIONS' SPEAKER; LADIES' NIGHT

A warning that the United Nations must not fall into the same errors that the Nazis have committed in occupied territories when the Allies take over management of affairs in conquered Germany was sounded by Dr. Thomas L. Cline, head of the English department at Gettysburg college, in an address Monday evening before a Ladies' Night dinner meeting of the Lions club in the Mt. Joy Lutheran parsonage.

Pointing out the lack of success in civil affairs that Nazi rule has met in Norway and in other countries overrun by the Germans, the speaker predicted that only revolution would result in Germany if, after the war, outsiders attempt to impose a new educational system upon the Germans "from the top."

He suggested the use of outstanding German refugees, who fled Germany with the ascent of the Nazi machine, in guiding re-education of the German nation. Present German textbooks that are completely related to the war psychology could be re-written by these able refugees to point German training along new lines, he said.

Study Education Here

Pointing out first the thoroughness with which Berlin directs the present school system in Germany, Doctor Cline reminded his audience that Allied policies after the war must be mapped for the purpose of achieving a lasting peace—rather than being directed at the punishment of the German people. "Let's use plain ordinary horse sense and not make the same mistakes the Nazis have made in handling the same problem," he urged.

While being concerned about international education problems, Doctor Cline suggested that Americans should take a greater interest in school matters at home. "Look over your children's textbooks instead of the comic sections," he urged with the assertion that the future of the American education system depends upon an enlightened citizenry.

Sixty Lions and their guests enjoyed a fried chicken dinner prepared and served by the ladies of Mt. Joy church.

President Hugh C. McIlhenny presided at the meeting.

Take No Action On Bond Purchase

Adams county's Commissioners took no action at their regular weekly meeting Wednesday, on the request of the County War Finance committee that they purchase a large block of war bonds with funds they have in several accounts.

The request of the War Finance committee had been made to one of the Commissioners this week and it was said that the Commissioners would consider the suggestion at today's session.

It was stated at the Commissioners' office that no action had been taken and that two of the three officials left shortly after noon for Harrisburg.

Some time ago the Commissioners announced that they planned to purchase $16,000 worth of war bonds. Later they rescinded this action stating that the interest to be derived from the war bonds was not as much as they are deriving under the present investment.

CONFUSION ON EARLY MORNING RAID WARNING

That Gettysburg needs a distinctive air raid alarm system was proven once again early Thursday morning when residents of the town were aroused about 3:30 o'clock by the blowing of a factory whistle, civilian defense heads said today.

The sounding of the whistle, although unaccompanied by the siren and other whistles, the standard signal for air raids, plunged the town into darkness for a few minutes and caused bewilderment among some wardens and residents as to whether a real air raid test was in progress.

Soundings of the whistle was caused by a misunderstanding of signals given to the factories, it was stated, during an air raid alert which mobilized control center stations in a six-state region.

Centers On "Alert"

The control center alarm proved that the control system of the county can function efficiently no matter what the hour and permitted defense heads to remove a few "bugs" in the system which showed up under the early hour test. All centers were manned for the alert.

The alarm began at 2:31 o'clock Thursday morning when "yellow" alert call came through rousing key defense heads and mobilizing the control centers. Calls were also placed to industrial plants to alert the plants so that as additional signals came through the public alarm could be given, if necessary, it was stated.

Watchmen at the plants and defense heads remained at their posts until the white signal came through at 3:27 o'clock for the all clear. A new employee at one of the plants misunderstood the "white" message and followed instructions to sound the first alarm on the second signal, which is usually the "blue" signal. A watchman at the central light switch in town immediately followed instructions to turn out the lights when the audible signal was given.

"Yellow" Was Genuine

The lights were out for only a few seconds when the local borough control center notified the switch operator that the signal had been given inadvertently.

Headquarters of the First Fighter Command announced that the yellow alert was issued in southern New Jersey, eastern Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland, the District of Columbia and part of Virginia, according to The Associated Press.

Staffs Excited

Employees of the state capitol in Trenton blacked out the building when air raid sirens were sounded by mistake in Morrisville, Pa., directly across the Delaware river, The AP reported.

The alert came at a time when state Civilian Defense officials had announced there would be no practice tests and caused considerable excitement throughout the area.

Extend Shoe Stamp Period

Six months was the period set by the Office of Price Administration Thursday night for stretching the next new-shoe ration stamp, which becomes valid November 1.

Heretofore, it's been four months between coupons.

Principal cause, OPA explained, is a critical shortage of leather due to heavy demands for military and industrial uses and for shoe repairing.

The manpower shortage is a contributing factor.

Present production estimates indicate, OPA said, that the new stamp will have to last until May 1, but if the outlook should improve sufficiently, the period will be shortened.

A definite announcement was promised as soon as studies underway are completed.

Stamps Overlap

In naming stamp No. 1 on the "airplane" sheet of ration book three as the coupon for the next period, OPA also announced that the expiration date of stamp 18 in book one has been extended indefinitely beyond October 31. Its use will overlap the new stamp, which likewise has no expiration date.

Elimination of expiration dates is intended to forestall last-minute rushes end to permit families to budget their needs over longer periods.
